Soul Realignment Practitioner/Akashic Records

Are you looking for real direction in your life? Is your Soul urging you to make life changes, but you don't quite know how to go about it? If you're feeling stuck in your life, I can do an akashic record reading to reveal how your Soul wants experience itself and then help you clear any misaligned energies.

I will help you tap into and access more dimensions of yourself. This will open the door towards discovering who you really are at your Divine Soul level. Whether it be events from past lives or your present life, together we will find the energies that do not align with you at the Soul level.

In addition, you will discover some of your Soul gifts and I will help you align with those gifts by supporting you in making better choices with how you manage your life.

This powerful akashic record reading and energy clearing is specific and I encourage you to be committed with clear intention and the follow up clearing prayers I give. Clear intention for the reading will help me get the best and most accurate information for you. By doing your own clearing work, this will help ground the aligned, higher dimensional energy into your physical body and consciousness.
