QUANTUM ENERGY HEALING

I am Amata Corinna, a divine channel for Quantum Energy Healing. Quantum Light Energy runs through my being like a river, healing and transforming. I work in person or remotely from wherever I am to anywhere in the world.

In a large capacity, I activate and facilitate light healing for mass amounts/large groups of people. On a personal level, I work with the most sacred space of the wombman as Spirit has taken me on my own journey to heal my own womb. I help women heal their wombs and their trauma connected to it so they may live in wholeness, thrive and align to their highest creative potential.

A PERSONAL SESSION WITH ME:

- ~Clears stagnant energy/regenerates cells within the womb to prevent & heal disease.
- ~Provides quick immunity & energy boost, returning you to the natural state of life force energy.
- ~Relieves specific areas of pain by reducing inflammation & healing the source of it.
- ~Heals specific triggers & upsets, allowing you to stay in your power throughout those moments.
- ~Provides peace through mental clarity & new found confidence to navigate life.

HOW MY QEH WORKS:

Every physical block/ailment starts with an energetic block, no matter how it manifests. Stagnant emotions (stagnant energy-in-motion) lead to energetic blocks within the fibers of our human bodies. My purpose is to use this intuitively profound light energy to heal the cells and tissues of the womb starting with the stagnant energy stored there. This will also stop physical blocks or disease from developing later on.

I will also address and facilitate healing of your specific triggers connected to your womb. Through this process you will feel more connected to your feminine power of creation. You will feel a shift in your energy that will echo through your ascension.

SERVICES:

- ~Personal- In person healing
- ~Personal- Remote healing
- ~In person mass/collective healing

"Amata did a distant healing on me after a major surgery. The next morning I was able to care for myself completely. Before the healing, I wasn't able to get up, go to the restroom, or dress myself. My caregivers were so shocked that one of them immediately got certified in Reiki after witnessing my miraculous transformation. During the healing, I had the most profound, life changing, spiritual experience, seeing myself in my true Angelic form for the first time."
